

MARK-IN-THE-PARK

What?

A “Mark-In” (protest) for local teachers and support staff

Where?

The Windsor waterfront, Riverside Drive at Ouellette

When?

Tuesday June 11 after school (between 3 and 6 pm)
(the 9 month anniversary of the the passing of Bill 115)
Speeches and open soapbox at 4:30pm

Why?

- To show that despite Bill 115 being repealed, collective bargaining rights have not been restored.
- To show governments and political parties of all stripes that we do not accept attempts to make our voluntary activities mandatory.
- To show that we put students first at all times, especially when we stand up for our rights and theirs as workers and future workers.
- To show whatever party gets elected in the coming by-elections, that teachers and education workers will not be bullied!

How?

What you should bring:

- lawn chair or blanket
- paperwork (marking, programming, accident-injury reports, etc.)
- signs and flags to attract attention
- flyers to hand out to the public
- all colleagues are welcome
