

FROM HATUEY TO THE CUBAN FIVE

CUBA'S STRUGGLE FOR INDEPENDENCE

On the occasion of CUBA'S INDEPENDENCE DAY

Friday, OCTOBER 10th at 6:30 PM

Beit Zatoun - 612 Markham St. (@Bathurst subway)

Since the historic figure of Hatuey – a indigenous resister who was burned at the stake in the 16th century – in Cuba's struggle against the slavery of Spanish colonialism, to the first war of independence led by Carlos Manuel de Céspedes, to the struggle led by Fidel Castro leading to the victory of the Cuban Revolution and its true independence from foreign domination, the Cuban people have demonstrated great sacrifice, which today is symbolized by the Cuban Five who are in U.S. jails for exposing U.S.-sponsored terrorism aimed at threatening Cuba's sovereignty.
