

TORONTO PUBLIC MEETING
Injured Workers Organize to Defend
Their Rights and the Rights of All

April 28 – 2:30-4:30 pm

Community Room, 70 Mill Street (Distillery District)

(By TTC: King St. Street Car to Trinity, walk 3 blocks south to Mill St. or 65 Parliament bus South to Mill St.)

This meeting on the National Day of Mourning, April 28, is held to hear workers speak out about their own concerns, especially the right to safe and healthy workplaces and working conditions and redress when workers are injured or killed on the job. It is organized at a time when an Ontario election is taking place on June 7 and the working people are being bombarded with agenda that do not represent them.

Come hear Migrante Ontario speak to the problems faced by the workers they represent in the hospitality, manufacturing and the service industries, and how they are fighting for their rights. Keynote speaker Peter Page from the Ontario Network of Injured Workers' Groups will inform about the impressive organizing work being done to defend the rights of injured workers and the rights of all.

This is a matter of concern not only to injured workers but for the entire society.

Everyone welcome!
