

It Can Be Done! It Must Be Done!

Chorus

It can be done! It must be done!
It can be done! It must be done!

A voice is calling across the land.
It calls on all to take a stand.
Stand up and fight for the New!
Workers, women and youth!
Join the struggle for our rights, we'll fight.
A whole new world is ours to be won.

Chorus

The all-round crisis is deepening.
The rulers have themselves crowned as kings.
They rule by decree and destroy the economy.
Now we have to decide!
Will we go with the Old, the status quo,
Or will we take a stand for the New?
Beware of liberal illusions. These serve only to sow confusion.
But with our theory and our practice
We'll march down the road of progress!
It can be done!
