

Our Security Lies In Our Fight for the Rights of All

Our security lies in our fight against the rulers
Who trample upon the rights of the people with impunity
Against humanity
Yes, our security lies in our fight.

Our security lies in our fight for the dignity
Of the working class against the dictate of impunity
We won't be driven to our knees
Yes, our security lies in our fight.

Our security lies in our fight
To affirm that all human beings have rights
No one is illegal – the attacks we must block
Yes, our security lies in our fight.

Our security lies in our fight
In the battle to lead society
To vest sovereignty in you and in me
End the rule of the rich
Yes our security lies in our fight.
